

Mount Grace Convent gratefully welcomes His Eminence, Cardinal Luis Antonio G. Tagle, who will celebrate and preside at the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass at 11:00 a.m. on Wednesday, September 23, 2026, in Mount Grace Chapel.

Cardinal Tagle, former Bishop of Imus and Archbishop of Manila, now serves the Universal Church in Rome as Pro-Prefect of the Dicastery for Evangelization. Esteemed throughout the world for his humility, pastoral wisdom, and joyful witness to the Gospel, he has become a beloved shepherd whose ministry continues to inspire countless faithful in their journey of discipleship and missionary service.

On the following day, September 24, Cardinal Tagle will preside at the Beatification Mass of Archbishop Fulton J. Sheen at the Dome at America's Center in St. Louis. Archbishop Sheen (1895-1979), a son of the Diocese of Peoria, was among the most influential Catholic evangelizers of the twentieth century. Through his preaching, writings, and pioneering radio and television ministry, most notably Life Is Worth Living, he brought the light of Christ into countless homes and hearts. His radiant faith, love for Our Lord, devotion to the Blessed Virgin Mary, and zeal for souls continue to bear fruit in the life of the Church and inspire believers throughout the world.

As we give thanks to God for the blessing of Cardinal Tagle's presence among us, we warmly invite all who are able to join this sacred celebration of the Holy Eucharist. May this gathering be an occasion of grace, renewal, and deeper communion with Christ and His Church.
